

OLD DOMINION MAKES FALLSVIEW CASINO DEBUT THIS DECEMBER

(Niagara Falls, ON) September 10, 2019 – An Evening with Old Dominion The Band Behind The Curtain hits the Fallsview Stage for two nights, December 12 and 13.

Dominating the country music charts, Old Dominion is known for performing lyrically self-aware and effortlessly melodic tunes that are a true reflection of each band member's collaborative spirit. Since breaking onto the country music scene in 2014, Old Dominion has had seven No. 1 hits on country radio and has surpassed one billion on-demand streams. They've also been recognized as the Group of the Year at both the 2018 and 2019 American Country Music Awards and are the reigning Country Music Award's Vocal Group of the Year. This December, audience members can experience this intimate performance with Old Dominion as they light up the stage with their biggest hits including, Make It Sweet, Hotel Key, One Man Band, No Such Thing as a Broken Heart and Snapback.

Adding to the excitement this December is Fallsview Casino's Christmas on Ice. Escape to a winter wonderland as the Avalon Theatre is magically transformed into an ice rink by freezing more than 7,000 gallons of water. Audience members will enjoy fabulous costumes, daring stunts and breathtaking special effects as ice skaters, dancers, singers, and of course Santa Claus, perform holiday classics such as White Christmas, Winter Wonderland, Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas, Jingle Bells, Deck the Halls and many more, November 21 – December 8.

"Two phenomenal shows are heading to Fallsview Casino this December," said Cathy Price, vice president of marketing for Niagara Casinos. "Christmas on Ice is a fan favourite that makes you feel like you're in a winter wonderland and with Old Dominion promising an intimate performance in a 1,500 seat theatre, December will be nothing short of amazing."
