

NIAGARA CASINOS DONATES SURPLUS FOOD TO LOCAL CHARITIES

(Niagara Falls, ON) March 20, 2020 – Niagara Casinos as an organization has always taken great pride in our ongoing partnership with the local community, and this partnership is even more important as we face these unprecedented times together.

Niagara Casinos has donated surplus food items including dairy, fruit, vegetables and other perishable items. These food items were given to over 10 different local charities and organizations in order to support those in need in our community. These included Project Share, Women's Place, FACS Niagara Region, Community Care, Casa El Norte, Soup Kitchen, RAFT, Fonthill Seniors Residence, Out of the Cold and more.

"We are so proud to be part of this incredible community" says Richard Taylor, president, Niagara Casinos. "It is inspiring to see this community pulling together to support each other. We appreciate the work from our associates putting the food donation together and truly appreciate the effort from all the individuals, charities and businesses as we work together to keep Niagara strong."
